

Newspaper Article Presentation

DESCRIPTION:

Every Tuesday and Thursday, two students will prepare a short (5 – 10 minute) presentation on a career related issue. You are to locate a newspaper article on an issue related to course ideas, summarize it, present it to the class and generate discussion.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Select an article from a Canadian newspaper – you can go on-line or use the traditional paper copies, available in the library. The article should be directly related to a career issue (see the list below) and be long enough to allow for the 5 – 10 minute presentation.
2. Provide a copy of the article to the teacher
3. Summarize the article to read / present to the class. Do not simply read the article to us. Put it in your own words!
4. Explain how the article related to the Career Studies course, illustrating what issue it is about.
5. Ask two thought – provoking questions to the class, generating discussion.
